Welcome Messages

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

As the President of the 29th Brazilian Congress of Parasitology – PARASITO 2025, it is an honor and a privilege to extend a warm invitation to you for our upcoming congress, which will take place in the beautiful city of Salvador, Bahia, from April 22 to 25, 2025.

This congress comes at a crucial time for the field of parasitology, as we face new challenges and exciting advances in research, education, and the practical application of knowledge for the benefit of society. Our goal for this congress is to create a vibrant forum for the exchange of knowledge, ideas, and experiences among parasitologists from around the world. We have organized a scientific program that will feature world-renowned experts, presentations of cutting-edge research, and interactive discussions that inspire innovation and collaboration.

The city of Salvador, with its rich history, cultural diversity, and stunning landscapes, offers an inspiring backdrop for our congress. In addition to the scientific sessions, you will have the opportunity to experience Bahia's warm hospitality, explore its historical sites, and enjoy its unique cuisine.

I strongly encourage your participation in this congress, whether by presenting your research, engaging in discussions, or simply connecting with other professionals. Your presence and contributions are what make our congress truly impactful, and I am confident that this event will leave a lasting mark on our community.

Please stay tuned for more details regarding registration, abstract submission, and accommodations, which will be available at www.parasito2025.com. We are committed to making this congress a rewarding and memorable experience for all participants. I look forward to welcoming you to Salvador in April 2025 for an event that promises to be scientifically enriching and personally enjoyable.

With warmest regards,

Patrícia Veras
Patrícia Sampaio Tavares Veras
President of PARASITO 2025

Dear colleagues and members of the scientific community,
It is with great honor and satisfaction that, as President of the Brazilian Society of Parasitology (SBP), I invite you all to participate in the 29th Brazilian Congress of Parasitology – PARASITO 2025, the SBP Biennial Meeting, an event that will have a special significance as we will also celebrate the diamond jubilee marking the 60th anniversary of SBP's foundation.

The congress will be held from April 22 to 25, 2025, in the city of Salvador (Bahia) and will bring together researchers, professors, students, and professionals to discuss the latest scientific advances in parasitology, share experiences, and promote integration among different areas of knowledge.

Over these six decades, SBP has played a crucial role in scientific dissemination and the training of new parasitologists in Brazil. This congress will be a milestone to revisit our history, reflect on current challenges, and chart the paths for the future of parasitology in the country.

We will have a diverse program, including lectures by renowned national and international experts, thematic symposia, scientific presentations, poster sessions, and various networking opportunities. The event will also be a space to honor those who have contributed to the history of SBP and the development of science in Brazil.

We invite everyone to join us in this scientific celebration and be part of this rich exchange of knowledge and experiences. Your presence will be essential to making this event unforgettable.

We look forward to your participation!
Sincerely,

Ricardo Toshio Fujiwara

Ricardo Toshio Fujiwara

President of the Brazilian Society of Parasitology (SBP)

PARASITO 2025 – Overview

Brazilian Society of Parasitology – SBP

The Brazilian Society of Parasitology (SBP) was founded in July 1965 and will celebrate its Diamond Jubilee in 2025, marking 60 years since its establishment. Legally registered as the "Brazilian Technical-Scientific Society of Parasitology SBP," it is a non-profit civil organization that brings together parasitologists from Brazil and other countries. SBP is affiliated with the Brazilian Society for the Advancement of Science (SBPC), the Latin American Federation of Parasitology (FLAP), and the World Federation of Parasitology (WFP).

Recognized as being of public utility, this society aims to stimulate research and technological development in the fields of Medical, Veterinary, and Agricultural Parasitology.

In addition to promoting scientific events, SBP holds the important Brazilian Congress of Parasitology every two years. This event gathers professionals, undergraduate and graduate students from Brazil and abroad who work in parasitology across its various branches— infectious diseases, epidemiology, pharmacy, biomedicine, biology, medicine, veterinary medicine, clinical analysis laboratories, epidemiological surveillance services, management, and health policies related to the country's diverse healthcare services, Research Institutions, and Higher Education Institutions (HEIs), as well as the industrial sector. It aims to expand knowledge boundaries and seek advancements and solutions for the main parasitic diseases affecting Brazil and the Americas. Through the exchange of experiences and sharing of scientific discoveries and advancements, SBP has also contributed to the development of prevention and control alternatives in the epidemiological surveillance sector in our country.

Learn more about SBP's work on the following website: www.parasitologia.org.br.

The Journal of Tropical Pathology - RPT/Journal of Tropical Pathology (ISSN 1980-8178) disseminates knowledge in the field of agents and vectors of transmissible diseases in living organisms and their impact on public health. It is published by the Institute of Tropical Pathology and Public Health of the Federal University of Goiás and is the official journal of the Brazilian Society of Parasitology. The journal publishes four issues annually, along with thematic supplements, featuring articles exclusively in English. This is the RPT website: <https://revistas.ufg.br/iptsp>.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Sponsorship opportunities for PARASITO 2025 are offered in various packages, ranging from exhibitors (the most basic level of sponsorship) to different levels of sponsors that can be aligned with the expectations and marketing strategies related to the goals of supporting companies and initiatives.

Why sponsor?

Market positioning will allow you to be identified as a leading company/entity in the field and a supporter of the community of opinion leaders in Parasitology. It represents an opportunity to stand out in the global market associated with parasitology, from basic science to the development of solutions for disease control. The support is offered within the scope of the main international congress dedicated to the field, with benefits that will allow lead conversions before (through social media promotion, website, and campaigns), during (exhibitions, presentations, and in-person interactions), and after (direct mailings and contacts, according to Brazilian General Data Protection Law - LGPD) the event. Moreover, this is an opportunity to associate your brand and increase the visibility of your company/entity, highlighting your presence as an agent of transformation and a stakeholder in the field of Parasitology.

Why exhibit?

To provide interactions with the national and international audiences in the field of Parasitology. To present your solutions to leaders in the field with the potential to generate new hits and leads for your business, and the possibility of conversion for your products and services within the national and international Parasitology community. The booths will be strategically positioned in high-traffic areas of the event, facilitating interaction with colleagues, potential clients, and leaders in research, development, and innovation in Parasitology. This is a unique opportunity to showcase state-of-the-art technology, products, and services to a specialized audience, receiving direct feedback from the consumer market.

Conditions and Regulations Covering PARASITO 2025

1. RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR SPONSORS AND EXHIBITORS

- A. In the rules and regulations for participation in PARASITO 2025, the term "Sponsoring Company" will include all employees, representatives, and agents of any individual company, partnership, firm, or organization that has registered to sponsor and request space for exhibition purposes.
- B. The term "Congress" will refer to PARASITO 2025.
- C. The term "Organizer" will refer to the Organizing Committee of PARASITO 2025, which is authorized to organize the Congress.

2. REGISTRATIONS

- A. Registration for sponsorship must be completed on the specified registration form, which must be submitted to the Organizer. After submission, Sponsoring Companies must finalize the sponsorship agreement with the Organizer. The corresponding fees must be paid within the timeframe specified in the agreement.
- B. Registration for exhibition must be completed on the specified registration form, which must be submitted to the Organizer, along with the deposit of the total fee. The total amount deposit must be paid and received by January 24th, 2025, at the latest. However, sponsorship payments are subject to the schedule stipulated in a separate sponsorship agreement.
- C. Registration for sponsorship items and printed advertising must be completed on the specified registration form, which must be submitted to the Organizer at the time of the request, specifying the registration date, and the dates may be adjusted in consultation with the Organizer.
- D. All payments must be made via bank transfer.

3. ALLOCATION OF EXHIBITION SPACE

- A. Regarding the allocation of the sponsor's booth location, priority depends first on the level of sponsorship, then on the date of deposit payment, and lastly on the registration date.
- B. In the case of exhibition only, preferential rights will be granted based first on booth size and then on the date of deposit payment.

4. USE OF EXHIBITION SPACE

- A. Sponsoring Companies are required to display the advertised products and maintain the booth with competent personnel throughout the Congress, paying attention to the organization, cleanliness, and maintenance of the area in the condition in which it was delivered to the Sponsoring Company.
- B. All exhibitions must comply with the description in the registration form and be related to the theme of the Congress. Public auctions without the permission of the Organizer are strictly prohibited. If Sponsoring Companies violate the aforementioned rules, the Organizer may suspend the activities of the Sponsoring Companies, remove their exhibits, or order the dismantling of the booth. In this case, the participation fee will not be refunded, and the Sponsoring Companies will not be entitled to any compensation.
- C. Sponsoring Companies must remove all exhibits and booth accessories from the exhibition venue within the period stipulated by the Organizer and indemnify the Organizer against any costs incurred due to delays or damages to the exhibition venue. All booth builders and contractors hired must be duly registered with the event hotel and comply with the space rules established by the event hotel.
- D. Sponsoring Companies are not authorized to sublet the space allocated to them to other parties, in whole or in part, without the written consent of the Organizer. Products or companies not specified in the registration form and accepted by the Organizer may not be exhibited or advertised at the booth. The Organizer has the right to remove all unapproved exhibits at the expense of the sponsoring company.
- E. Promotional activities, including the distribution of flyers, materials, and gifts, must be limited to the booths of the Sponsoring Companies so as not to interfere with the rights of other booths. The public relations plan must be submitted in advance to the Secretariat.
- F. During the setup and dismantling of the booth, all Sponsoring Companies and their contractors for booth setup must comply with the technical regulations established by the event hotel.

5. CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION

- A. Sponsoring Companies must make payments by the due dates. Otherwise, the Organizer has the right to cancel participation, and the paid fee will follow the stipulations in the cancellation clause.
- B. Any changes to the contract or cancellation must be communicated in writing. Cancellation of sponsorship or refunds must comply with the relevant provisions of a separate sponsorship agreement.
- C. For the cancellation of sponsorship items and printed advertising, refunds will be processed as follows:
  - 50% of the total payment will be deducted for cancellations requested before January 24th, 2025.
  - 70% of the total payment will be deducted for cancellations requested from January 24th to March 1st, 2025.
  - No refund will be granted for cancellations requested after March 1st, 2025.

6. CANCELLATION AND CHANGES

In the event of cancellation caused by the Organizer, the paid participation fee will be refunded to the Sponsoring Companies, deducting any applicable bank fees. However, if the cancellation and/or changes in the size and duration of the Congress are caused by force majeure or exceptional circumstances, the fee will not be refunded. In this case, the Sponsoring Companies will not be entitled to claim compensation from the Organizer.

7. SECURITY, RISK, AND INSURANCE

- A. The Organizer is responsible for taking appropriate measures to ensure the safety of visitors.

- B. Sponsoring Companies will be liable for any loss, theft, or damage to exhibits, booth accessories, or any items belonging to the Sponsoring Companies during the setup, exhibition, and dismantling periods.

8. FIRE REGULATIONS

- A. All materials used for the construction, decoration, coating, or covering of booths and/or stands must be non-combustible or treated to become so by immersion in a flame-retardant solution.
- B. For fire control, the Organizer has the right to require changes to the booths of the Sponsoring Companies.

9. SUPPLEMENTARY CLAUSES

- A. Whenever necessary, the Organizer will have the right to issue supplementary regulations beyond those established in the rules and regulations for participation in PARASITO 2025.
- B. Any additional written regulatory instructions will be part of the rules and regulations for participation in PARASITO 2025 and will be binding on the Sponsoring Companies.

10. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE

Any dispute arising from these conditions and regulations between the Organizer and the Sponsoring Companies, including any issues related to the rights and obligations of either party, shall designate Salvador as the jurisdiction, which has jurisdiction over the region where the current address of the Organizer resides, to resolve any litigation regarding this contract.
